RCW 28A.195.040

Home-based instruction shall provide:

- 450 hours/year of instruction for kindergarten
- 2700 hours in three years of instruction for grades 1 through 3
- 2970 hours in three years of instruction grades 4 through 6
- 1980 hours in two years of instruction for grades 7 and 8
- 4320 hours in four years of instruction for grades 9 through 12

RCW 28A.200.010 Student Placement upon Returning to Public School

At the time of a transfer to a public school from home-based instruction, the local school district may require that a standardized achievement test be administered to the child, and the district will determine appropriate grade and course placement of the student after consultation with the parent and review of the student's records.

RCW 28A.200 Parent Duties

- File annually a signed declaration of intent to provide home-based instruction;
- Ensure that test scores or annual academic progress assessments and immunization records, together with any other records that are kept relating to the instructional and educational activities provided, are forwarded to any other public or private school to which the child transfers;
- Ensure that a standardized achievement test approved by the state board of education is administered annual to the child by a qualified individual or that an annual assessment of the student's academic progress is written by a certificated person who is currently working in the field of education. The standardized test results or the annual academic progress assessment report shall be made part of the child's permanent records. If, as a result of the annual test or assessment, it is determined that the child is not making reasonable progress consistent with his or her age or stage of development, the parent shall make a good faith effort to remedy any deficiency.

RCW 28A.225.010 Instructional and Educational Activities Must Be:

- provided by a parent who is instructing his or her child only and is supervised by a person certificated under RCW28A.70; OR
- provided by a parent who is instructing his or her child only and who has either earned 45 college-level credit hours or equivalent in semester hours or has completed a course in home-based instruction at a post-secondary institution or a vocational-technical institute; OR
- provided by a parent who is deemed sufficiently qualified to provide home-based instruction by the superintendent of the local school district in which the child resides.

More detailed information is available in a booklet entitled Washington State's Laws Regulating Home-Based Instruction, available from the Superintendent of Public Instruction or at the North Olympic Library.
